SENATE RESOLUTION 309

Senator Santiesteban offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The El Paso Chamber of Commerce and the El Paso legislative delegation are hosting "El Paso Day in Austin" on Tuesday, March 3, 1981, with a schedule for the visitors from the Sun City which includes courtesy calls by the visitors with state officials and "Fiesta El Paso," a party for all members of the 67th Legislature and their staffs with the guests from El Paso; and

WHEREAS, El Paso is one of the state's most important commercial and tourist centers; along with its twin city, Ciudad Juarez, El Paso composes the largest urban area on the United States-Mexican border; and

WHEREAS, The Sun City is the home of The University of Texas at El Paso and El Paso Community College, and the military installations in the city include Fort Bliss, the William Beaumont Army Medical Center, and the United States Army Air Defense Command; and

WHEREAS, The area, which enjoys mild and sunny weather during most of the year, has numerous tourist attractions, including the Sun Carnival in December which draws people from all over the state and nation; and

WHEREAS, A city rich in colorful history, El Paso is celebrating its quadricentennial this year with the 4 Centuries 81 Celebration, which traces the roots of El Paso/Juarez from the Spanish Conquistadores' arrival at the Pass of the North in 1581 to its present-day status as a center for government, education, and tourism; and

WHEREAS, The celebration, which is being coordinated by the city's Arts Resources Department, the Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the Parks and Recreation Department, will include 11 major events and more than 400 individual activities to celebrate the joint quadricentennial, and one of the highlights of the celebration will be a four day/four night "cake-cutting" street festival, July 9-12, with an opening downtown parade climaxing in a country-western dance the first night of the festivities, and a media presentation designed for both natives and tourists called "The Pass of the North" which will remain a permanent visitor attraction; and

WHEREAS, Recognizing the outstanding and unique contributions that the citizens of the El Paso area make to this state, the members of the Texas Senate welcome their delegation to the capital city; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the 67th Legislature of the State of Texas hereby recognize Tuesday, March 3, 1981, as "El Paso Day in Austin"; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be prepared for the El Paso visitors as an expression of best wishes and of commendation for their city.

The resolution was read and was adopted.

SECTION 31. Article 1812, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

Art. 1812. MEMBERSHIP. (a) Each Court of Appeals shall consist of a Chief Justice and, in each respective district, the following number of Associate Justices:

(1) First	8
(2) Second	5
(3) Third	2
(4) Fourth	5
(5) Fifth	11
(6) Sixth	2
(7) Seventh	3
(8) Eighth	2
(9) Ninth	2
(10) Tenth	2
(11) Eleventh	2
(12) Twelfth	2
(13) Thirteenth	5
(14) Fourteenth	8

~~[Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this article, each Court of Civil Appeals shall consist of a Chief Justice and two Associate Justices. A majority shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, and the concurrence of two Justices shall be necessary to a decision.]~~

(b) Each Court of Appeals shall sit in panels of not less than three Justices. A majority of a panel shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, and the concurrence of a majority of a panel shall be necessary for a decision. If more than one panel is used, the justices of the court shall periodically rotate among the panels as provided by rules established by the respective courts. Permanent civil and criminal panels without rotation shall not be established. The Chief Justice of each respective court, under rules established by the court, shall convene the court en banc for the transaction of all other business and may convene the court en banc for the purpose of hearing cases. When convened en banc, a majority of the membership of the court shall constitute a quorum and the concurrence of a majority of the court sitting en banc shall be necessary for a decision. ~~[Each Court of Civil Appeals for the First, Fourteenth, and Fifth Supreme Judicial Districts shall consist of a Chief Justice and five Associate Justices and may sit in panels of not less than three Justices.]~~ Effective January 1, 1983, the Court of [Civil] Appeals for the Second Supreme Judicial District and the Court of Appeals for the Third Supreme Judicial District shall consist of a Chief Justice and five Associate Justices and may sit in panels of not less than three Justices. The office of Associate Justice for each of the members of the Court of Appeals for the Third Supreme Judicial District that is created by this Act exists on the dates of the primary and general elections in 1982 for the purpose of the election of the Associate Justice for a term beginning January 1, 1983. ~~[The concurrence of a majority of a panel is necessary for a decision.]~~

(c) When additional Justices of a Court of [Civil] Appeals are elected and qualified, they shall draw lots for their terms of office, as provided by law for Justices of the Courts of [Civil] Appeals after the initial creation of such courts.

(d) A Justice of the Court of [Civil] Appeals may be assigned temporarily to another Court of [Civil] Appeals by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court regardless of whether a vacancy exists in the Court of [Civil] Appeals to which he is assigned. A qualified retired Justice may be assigned to a Court of [Civil] Appeals for active service regardless of whether a vacancy exists.

The amendment was read.

Senator Meier offered the following amendment to the amendment:

Amend the proposed floor amendment number 6 to Senate Bill 265 by striking subsection (2) of Section 31A and substituting therefore the following:
